FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yonkers Public Library's Riverfront Library Announces Still Life Painting Classes

Yonkers, NY February 17, 2011...The Hudson River Artist Guild, which meets at the Riverfront Library, will offer an eight week series of art classes in techniques of drawing and painting still life compositions taught by Claire Madlin, a professional art teacher. The classes will be held on Wednesdays from 10:30 am - 1:30 pm on April 6, 13, 27, May 4, 11, 18, 25 and June 1 in the second floor Arts and Crafts Room. There will be no class on April 20. The classes are free, but participants must provide their own materials: drawing pencils, erasers, sketchbook, 11"x14" canvas, acrylic paints, brushes and paint palettes. Topics of instruction include color theory, brushwork, light and composition. No experience is required. Class size is limited to 15 people of any age. Yonkers residents have priority for registration. Registration begins Wednesday, March 23.

To register call 914-375-7966 or come to the 3rd floor Information desk.

For questions about artist materials and class instruction call Claire Madlin 914-819-0741 or email cmplpw1@ymail.com.

Riverfront Library, located at One Larkin Center, is handicapped accessible. Parking is available in the nearby Buena Vista Parking Garage.
