FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Artist Exhibit: "Seven Eleven" by Marie Brooks at Yonkers Riverfront Library

Yonkers, NY, May 31, 2011.... An exhibit of original artwork by Marie Brooks will be on display at Yonkers Riverfront Library during the month of July. Ms. Brooks is a Yonkers resident who enjoys multi-media creative ventures as a pastime. She works in clay, photography, computer art, acrylics and watercolor paint.

She will present "SEVEN ELEVEN" (word play on the month and year), a multi-media presentation of caricature sculptures of personality types and black-and-white prints of her various creative experiments over the past year. Most of the work will be shown for the first time and was completed within the last two years. The show will also include a few pieces from previous shows. All of the caricature sculptures are originals and the prints are line conversions of her photographs and original paintings.

The exhibit will be on display in the Atrium of the Yonkers Riverfront Library, located at One Larkin Center, Yonkers NY 10701 from July 1 - July 28, 2011. Riverfront Library is handicapped accessible. Parking is available at the nearby Buena Vista parking garage. Please contact the Branch Administration office at 914-375-7941 for additional information.
