

SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH, GETTY SQUARE

WWW.STJOHNSGS.ORG

"Proclaiming the love of God and Neighbor in Yonkers since 1693"

Contact: The Rev. John M. Hamilton
(914) 512-8156
parish@stjohnsgs.org
www.stjohnsgs.org

October 12, 2011

Press Release

Harvest Festival Saturday November 5 at St. John's Church

St. John's Church is holding a Harvest Festival this year on November 5 from 12:00 Noon to 6:00 PM. It will include food, music, a country store, children activities, and vendors. St. John's is located at the corner of Hudson Street and South Broadway.

Dinners feature pulled pork, bratwurst, or sausage and peppers, all with three sides, drink and a dessert. Meals may be bought in advance for $10.00 and $12.00 at the door. Baked goods, hot cider, and other beverages will also be available.

Raffle prizes include an I-pod Touch, $100.00, Basket for a complete Turkey Dinner and other prizes. Tickets will be $1.00 or 6 for $5.

A "Country Store" will sell jams, chutneys, homemade baked goods, cheese from the wheel, and other items suitable for Christmas giving.

Music will be played all day while people relax at tables inside or out.

Children's activities include a bouncy castle and face painting.

Vendors will sell a variety of goods also suitable for Christmas Giving.

To buy Dinners and Raffle Tickets in advance call (914) 963-3033 or email parish@stjohnsgs.org. Payments must be received in advance of the Festival to qualify for the discount or for tickets to enter the draw. The website is www.StJohnsGS.org

This harvest festival is to allow us to celebrate our thanksgiving for life, health, and each other. A Harvest Festival is a celebration of Thanksgiving. All the proceeds from this Harvest Festival go to maintain and restore this historic site first constructed in 1754.

###